Chicago Police Officer’s
Line of Duty Benefits Handbook

Dear Gold Star Family Member,

I never thought I would have to introduce myself as a fellow survivor, a widow, and part of an organization connected with the Chicago Police Department, the Gold Star Families. My husband died on duty in 2003 after 17 years on the job, as a sergeant in the 20th district, working nights. In order to honor fallen officers as a group, the Gold Star Families was created with the mission to provide support and strength in remembering each individual life that was taken from us. Meetings for the Gold Star Families are scheduled in March and September, with newsletters sent through mail and email to notify of upcoming events and changes within the organization, www.cpdgoldstarfamilies.org

Sadly, there is a process that others have gone through before us, the tragedy of losing a loved one in the line of duty. There is an overwhelming amount of information involved with benefits available, along with contact sources to assist with filing of documents. It is not only difficult to accept the reality of the situation, but the consequences that follow also.

The creation of a benefits booklet to assist with this process signifies the endurance of others, and may you find comfort in knowing that other families will always keep you in their thoughts and prayers. I have figured out what the difference between grief and mourning is, mourning has company.

Best Regards,

Bethany O’Reilly

“I’m the luckiest man in the world” is a quote best known as being uttered by Lou Gehrig in a farewell speech he made at Yankee Stadium. Even though he knew that his body was being ravaged by the disease that is now named for him; a disease he knew would kill him, Lou Gehrig still felt lucky. I get up every day and say the same thing to myself. We should all feel so lucky.

Recognizing your “good luck” is essential to understanding sacrifice. It’s always a question of whether the glass is half full or half empty. My role as President of the Chicago Police Memorial Foundation brings me into regular contact with the families of fallen and catastrophically injured officers. I have always known these officers and their families to be heroes, but, I my role as President of the Chicago Police Memorial Foundation has brought me to realize the immeasurable gratitude we owe them. While you might think their sacrifice would make them bitter, I have never heard a single complaint from anyone.

When an officer is killed or catastrophically injured we are all heart broken, but, with few exceptions our lives continue as they had before. Everything changes for the families of the fallen and injured officers. Just imagine the sacrifices your family would have to make if you were in the place of one of our heroes; dreams shattered, love lost, emotional and financial strain that never subsides.

With your help, the Chicago Police Memorial Foundation stands by our heroes and we thank each of you for all that you have done on behalf of the officers and their families.

The Foundation has printed this book of benefits in order that no opportunity to help our police families goes unfulfilled. Our thanks to the Board of the CPMF for their hard work in compiling the list of benefits and to the Chicago Police Patrolmen’s Federal Credit Union for underwriting the cost of producing the book.

Best regards

Important Information from the Special Activities Section of the Chicago Police Department

The Special Activities Section makes the initial death notification along with the Chaplain and/or the officer's Commander/Commanding Officer. Once the notification has been made, we let the family know that we will be with them through the upcoming days, weeks and months following their loved one's death. On the day after the death, we meet with the family and present them with the format for the Honors Funeral. We inform them that the Honors Funeral consists of an Honor Guard and pallbearers comprised of uniformed police officers. Explain the St. Jude ceremony and inform the family that an Honor Guard will stand at the casket from the beginning of public viewing until the last person has passed.

If the Honors Funeral is acceptable to the family, the Special Activities Section will give the family information on participating funeral homes which provide free standard yet professional funeral service. Any charges beyond the standard service provided by the funeral home are paid for by the family. If the family does not want to use any of the funeral homes listed, Special Activities needs to find a suitable site which is willing to provide services, if not for free then at a minimal cost to the family.

We will take the family to the funeral home and meet with the director and also find out from the family at which church they would like the services to be held and which pastor they would like to perform the service. We will also escort them to whatever cemetery they choose. Once the family has chosen the funeral home, church and cemetery, we visit each site to coordinate dates and times. We also work with the family to put together a memorial/program for the funeral.

During the course of the wake, funeral and burial we are with the family for whatever services they need. We will arrange for pick up of family members from airports.

After the burial takes place, Special Activities begins the process of filing for death benefits from the following agencies:

Public Safety Benefits Office (PSOB – Federal Government)
Law Enforcement Officers and Fireman's Compensation Act (through Illinois Court of Claims)
Prudential Life Insurance
Met Life Insurance (optional)
Finance Committee (City of Chicago)
Federal Employee Compensation Act (benefit would be paid if CPD officer was assigned to Federal Agency at the time of death)
Illinois Crime Victim Compensation (this benefit is paid only if Illinois benefit is not applicable)
100 Club of Cook County
Chicago Police Memorial Foundation
Illinois Police Association
Taser Foundation
Filing the paperwork for the above mentioned benefits is something that the family could do if they wanted to; we do it as a courtesy because there is so much paperwork involved in submitting to each agency.

Special Activities also makes arrangements to take the surviving member to the Pension Board, Credit Union, FOP, Deferred Compensation in order for the survivor to file for his/her benefits.

Special Activities personnel are on call 24 hours a day to answer the call whenever a police officer is injured or killed in the line of duty. We are immediately notified through Operations Command when an incident occurs and we respond to the scene.

Special Activities can be reached during normal business hours at 312-745-5844 (Monday thru Friday) Special Activities also can be reached on our cell phones which can be given out when needed.
I. Death and Disability Benefit Payments
A. PSOB Survivor Death Benefits and Disability Benefits

Provider: US Department of Justice - BJA - Public Safety Officers Benefits Program

Amount: The amount of the PSOB benefit is approximately $333,604.68 for eligible deaths occurring on or after October 1, 2013.

Summary: A unique partnership effort of the U.S. Department of Justice; local, state, tribal, and federal public safety agencies; and national organizations, the Public Safety Officers' Benefits (PSOB) Programs provide death benefits to survivors of fallen law enforcement officers and disability benefits to officers catastrophically injured in the line of duty. The PSOB Office at the Bureau of Justice Assistance is honored to review the nearly 700 claims submitted each year on behalf of America's fallen and catastrophically disabled public safety heroes and their loved ones.

The Hometown Heroes’ Act expanded the circumstances under which public safety officer deaths resulting from heart attacks and strokes may be covered by the program. The Act established a statutory presumption that public safety officers who die from a heart attack or stroke following a nonroutine stressful or physical activity or training died in the line of duty for benefit purposes. The Act specifically excludes activities that are of a clerical, administrative or nonmanual nature. Consult the Attorney General’s Guide to the Hometown Heroes Survivors Act for information regarding filing a Hometown Heroes Act Claim.
